The Pastor's Pen

"Welcome her in the Lord in a way that is worthy of God's people, and give her whatever she needs from you, because she herself has been a sponsor of many people, myself included."
 Romans 16:2 (CEB)

This month I want to share a few personal reflections on the 2024 Annual Conference which I attended as a delegate this time. I have served as a delegate a few times before. This conference was held in Grand Rapids, Michigan. I was grateful for having Don with me this time. We drove to and from Grand Rapids. He was not a delegate. Virginia Nalley was our other delegate. While Ginny and I attended the business sessions, Don caught up with people he has not seen in a while; and he relaxed while reading. Each day we had supper with Ginny which gave us a chance to debrief about our experiences of the day.

I attended the pre-conference pastors' seminar. Dr. Frank A. Thomas, professor of homiletics at Christian Theological Seminary and author, was the keynote speaker. His theme was on preaching. He encouraged us to be authentic, genuine, and appropriately vulnerable in our preaching. He wrote a book on this topic, "Listening for the Sound of the Genuine".

The theme for the conference was based on Roman 16:2, supporting the Annual Conference theme, "Welcome and Worthy". Madalyn Metzger was the moderator for the conference. I met Madalyn when she was a youth serving in youth denominational leadership. Along with Eddie Edmonds, I served as an advisor to the National Youth Cabinet. Madalyn, along with five others, were the youth serving on the cabinet. Madalyn, preaching on her chosen theme said, "We are yearning to be in community with and for each other...Being in community means walking beside each other even in disagreement...so that we can faithfully fulfill our calling to be Christ's hands and feet." (Messenger, page 15)

Don and I attended four of the five worship services. Because we wanted to drive home in one day, we missed the Sunday morning service. Worship was very meaningful. The band, led by Seth Crissman and Greg Yoder led the singing of old hymns and new songs. Seth told us that the theme song that we sang everyday as preparation for worship, was written on his way to Annual Conference. He simply was unable to compose something he felt was perfect for the theme before then. Seth said that although he felt some anxiety that he had not come up with a song before leaving for conference, "God was faithful and provided." Robin Munday, Paul Munday's wife was the conference organist.

The sermon shared by Brother Greg Broyles really spoke to me. He came to the pulpit dressed as a super hero. His message centered on sharing affirmations as a way of building and strengthening individuals and community. This challenged me to reconsider a practice I very reluctantly put aside in my weekly routine because I was trying to find ways to be more efficient with my time. Sending birthday cards with personal affirming messages was important to me for expressing my encouragement, appreciation and love, and God's love for each of you. Putting that ministry aside has not set-well with my soul. I was going to start it again at the beginning of the year, but I believe I will begin doing it again soon. I apologize to all of you that I missed here in 2024. "Happy Belated Birthday! You are special and loved!"

The business sessions were without a lot of controversy. The query, "A New Model of Denominational Structure" brought to the conference by the Miami Haitian Church of the Brethren stirred-up some controversial discussion. I'm going to quote the Messenger Magazine, page 12, to convey in summary the purpose of the query: "The query notes 'serious conflict and division around issues of human sexuality and biblical authority' and asks how a new model of denominational structure may give hope to those contemplating separation from the Church of the Brethren." A brief debate broke out at the microphones because some felt this was an opportunity to open the debate about human sexuality and the 1983 paper on this topic. This was not the intent of this query. A member of the delegate body and the Moderator called the discussion back to focusing on the query that was on the floor.

Conference also gives us opportunities to serve while we are together. I was excited to find that we were taking an offering for, and building beds for the ministry of "Sleep in Heavenly, Peace". Thirty beds were built. This is the same ministry that our Bible School offering helped. We also learned that the third to fifth grade children's program tied fringes on handmade blankets; and delivered them personally to children in the Helen DeVos Children's Hospital. They thought they had one for every child, but learned before leaving that they were a few short. The children were disappointed they didn't have one for every child. I don't remember if they did something to make up for the shortage; but something tells me they did.

These are a few of the highlights and reflections about my conference experience. There are Annual Conference Wrap-up sheets for you to pick up on the credenza in the sanctuary. There is also a wrap-up dvd available in the church office that you can sign-out to watch. Thank you for the opportunity to attend conference.

Colossians 3:17 (NRSV)*

The grief journey after losing a loved one is very painful, difficult, and lonely. Since everyone grieves in his or her own way and time, there is no magical endpoint to the grieving process. Fortunately, we have GriefShare, an encouraging seminar offering support after the death of a loved one, no matter how recent. It provides a GriefShare safe, welcoming space where people understand the heavy emotions of grief. At this 13-week group, you will receive valuable tools to help you navigate your personal path, as well as support from others also on their grief journeys. If you or someone you know has lost a loved one, please share this information and consider attending. We encourage you to bring a family member or friend so they can better understand your loss and become a greater support for you.

Our fall session of GriefShare will begin on Monday, September 9, and continue through December 2, from 6:30 - 8:30 p.m. in the Mullendore Room. You may join the program at any time during the 13 weeks, but we ask that you commit to attend at least 3 weeks. Cost of the program is free, but we gladly will accept a $10 donation toward materials. Register at griefshare.org. If you have any questions about the program, see Pastor Twyla or Debbie

Volunteers In Mission—Tri-State Hope Builders

On September 28, 2024 the VIM team (Volunteers In Mission) through Tri-State Hope Builders will be headed to Hindman in Eastern Kentucky. We will be helping to build new homes. From HCOB Gary & Sue Wright and John & Jenny Ferguson will be joining this team. We are staying in the Hindman, United Methodist church. This is what happened; on July 28, 2022, historic flooding impacted Hindman Kentucky. They had 14-16 inches of rain in a few days. Forty five people lost their lives. So many lost everything, their homes, vehicles, all their belongings and their loved ones. (Tri State Hope Builders) is accepting donations for building material, gas and food. To become a supporting member of the team, donations may be made to HCOB with Kentucky Mission written in the memo. Donations should be made by September 8th. Please keep us in prayer for safe travel and safety while building.

Thank you, Gary, Sue, John & Jenny.

Annual Conference Report

The theme for this years conference was Welcome + Worthy. Emphasis was placed on the concepts of "Unity not Homogeny", encouraging everyone to embrace diversity of thought rather than insisting on sameness of thought. The hope of forging a stronger family through understanding and communication was repeated with every scripture and sermon.

For the business meetings, we each sat at a table with 6-8 others. My table had people from California, Virginia, and the table monitor was from the district in Indiana where my father had his first congregation. We had several table talks with reminders to aim to understand each other, not to try to convert each other to our own way of thinking. These were a good way to understand different perspectives.

I went to a couple of "Equipping sessions" in between business meetings. I went to "Building Bridges in a Fractured World". This was presented by Audrey Hollenberg-Duffey and Janet Ober-Lambert. It led us through how to connect with others, especially if we didn't see eye to eye. I also went to "Standing with People of Color" that had several different presenters who spoke about their personal experiences in the Church of the Brethren as a person of color.

The Exhibit hall had many interesting booths. Some focused on COB history and others on current issues. I bought many interesting books at the Brethren Press tables. There was a silent auction and I won a quilt. They sometimes had live music or presentations in the Exhibit Hall as well.

I also enjoyed reconnecting with people I haven't seen in a while and eating dinner with Pastor Twyla and Don. I look forward to the 2025 Annual Conference.

The Novel Bunch presents...

the Voice in the Mountains

In the spring of 1966, in Shade Gap, PA, 17-year old Peggy Ann Bradnick got off the school bus with her siblings, only to be abducted by a masked man with a shotgun. Her 8-day ordeal sparked a multi-state manhunt and made international headlines.

This is Peggy's story in her own words. It is one of forgiveness and grace. Peggy Ann Bradnick Jackson is a woman of great faith whose quiet strength will astound you.

Even though this book focuses on a horrible crime, it is not graphic or gory. But it is a compelling story of a former victim turned survivor. And after 50-plus years, Peggy Jackson received a commendation from the FBI last year.

In the words of Mr. Lloyd Dell, a radio broadcaster who covered the story at the time:

"Peggy, through her speaking engagements and her life, shows mature Christian love, exhibiting mercy and grace to all, even those like William Hollenbaugh who have wronged her through the years."

And the dedication page states:

"And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God."

--Romans 8:28

Peggy will be our guest author on Saturday, November 16, to discuss her book and answer your questions. We invite the congregation to meet Peggy Jackson and hear her story.

10 a.m. - 12 p.m. Fellowship Hall

Luncheon to follow.

NOTE: If you have any questions or need assistance acquiring the book, call Jenny Ferguson at 301-964-1779. Please return the section below if you plan to attend.
