

Come and see

Fresh snow covering the ground looks beautiful, but it can make walking treacherous. One way to move more easily is to walk in someone else's footprints.

"Come and see"

In our individualistic society, we imagine that life spreads before us like unmarked snow, making it difficult, at times, to walk without stumbling. We try to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. But it can be confusing to know just how actions taken during the Roman Empire apply to life in the twenty-first century.

"Come and see"

In today's scripture, Andrew invites Simon Peter to meet the Messiah. Our church family can help us find the path. We can learn about and remember heroes of the faith, from the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., whose life we celebrate this week, to family and friends who have broken a path before us.

"Come and see"

Prayer provides another help. Through prayer, we invite God to direct us, both as individuals, and all together, one body, like we do this week during the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity.

"Come and see"

Pray to know your path. Stride boldly to make a way for others to walk with Jesus, too. Learn more about how others have followed God. And bathe every step in prayer.

"Come and see"

"He said to them, 'Come and see.' They came and saw where he was staying, and they remained with him that day. It was about four o'clock in the afternoon" (John 1:39, NRSVue). Today's Bible readings from the lectionary: Isaiah 49:1-7; Psalm 40:1-11; 1 Corinthians 1:1-9; John 1:29-42.

SERVICE OF GIVING

Call to Giving

Remembering all that we have spent for nothing and vanity, we now consider how to bring offerings worthy of God’s saving grace. Nothing can compare to God’s wondrous deeds and thoughts toward us. We can only respond with trust and joy and generosity.

As we pass the offering plate here in the sanctuary, we also pass a virtual offering plate to those worshipping with us on YouTube Live. We invite you to give by mailing your offering to the church or dropping it off at the church during the week, or by going to the Hagerstowncob website.

SCRIPTURE READING

John 1:29-42

NT 92

The next day he saw Jesus coming toward him and declared, "Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world! This is he of whom I said, 'After me comes a man who ranks ahead of me because he was before me.' I myself did not know him, but I came baptizing with water for this reason, that he might be revealed to Israel." And John testified, "I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. I myself did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water said to me, 'He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.' And I myself have seen and have testified that this is the Chosen One."

The next day John again was standing with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus walk by he exclaimed, "Look, here is the Lamb of God!" The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus. When Jesus turned and saw them following, he said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi" (which translated means Teacher), "where are you staying?" He said to them, "Come and see." They came and saw where he was staying, and they remained with him that day. It was about four o'clock in the afternoon. One of the two who heard John speak and followed him was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. He first found his brother Simon and said to him, "We have found the Messiah" (which is translated Anointed). He brought Simon to Jesus, who looked at him and said, "You are Simon son of John. You are to be called Cephas" (which is translated Peter).
