

Happy tears

Daniela sped to the office of the Bernardo Kohler Center for Immigration, my Brethren Volunteer Service placement, as soon as I texted that her green card had arrived. After fleeing violence in her home country, she became a victim of a crime in the US, making her eligible for a U-Visa. U-Visa recipients typically wait more than ten years to receive a green card, which grants many benefits and protections.

When Daniela finally held her green card in her hands, she cried out, “gracias, Dios,” “thank you, God,” in between loud, wracking sobs. Her tears released years of fear, uncertainty, and longing. Deep joy sprang from deep suffering.

The people of Galilee in today’s scripture also spent long years waiting for relief. They ached for a Savior who would bring not just spiritual redemption but also deliverance from the shadowy, death-dealing forces of oppression, first under the Assyrian Empire, and, by the time Jesus began his ministry, under Roman rule.

In Matthew 4, Jesus goes to Galilee to proclaim the good news that the kingdom of heaven is near. In Isaiah 9, the eponymous prophet alluded to this arrival, foretelling that the people of Galilee would rejoice before God when God “shattered the yoke that burdens them.”

When Jesus came, he taught, healed, fed, and included diverse individuals with spiritual and physical ills. However, it seems to me that the light that dawned with Jesus is taking its sweet time to rise.

When I start to despair about the kingdom’s long sunrise, I remind myself of all the people I have met who work to build a world that is more like heaven—a world where all are loved, valued, and cared for. May those of us who have joy in Jesus serve all who suffer, and let the happy tears flow.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

WHERE HAVE YOU SEEN GOD?

PRELUDE “Contemplation on Jesus, I Come” (Scriveyner)

CALL TO WORSHIP Chris Stockslager, Worship Leader

One: Jesus comes along side us and calls us by name:

All: “I hear you call to me, follow me.”

One: A simple call. A hard call.

All: Because following requires leaving.

One: And we look around to see who else Jesus could be talking to.

All: And we look around to see the trappings of the life we know.

One: It’s hard to leave our nets and walk away from the lake.

All: But we have come this far, to this place, where we can listen and be transformed.

HYMN #117 “Fairest Lord Jesus”

[Verse 1]

Fairest Lord Jesus, ruler of all nature, O thou of God and Mary’s Son, thee will I cherish, thee will I honor thou, my soul’s glory, joy, and crown.

[Verse 2]

Fair are the meadows, fairer still the woodlands, robed in the blooming garb of spring. Jesus is fairer, Jesus is purer, who makes the woeful heart to sing.

[Verse 3]

Fair is the sunshine, fairer still the moonlight, and all the twinkling, starry host. Jesus shines brighter, Jesus shines purer than all the angels heav’n can boast.

[Verse 4]

Beautiful Savior, Lord of all the nations, Son of God and Son of Man, glory and honor, praise, adoration, now and forevermore be thine.

OPENING PRAYER

Loving Savior, you call to us across deep waters and dark places. Yours is the light which guides us and the voice which we follow. We pray that you would reveal yourself to us as we worship you. May those without hope be encouraged; those who are sad, cheered; those who are seeking, find you; and may all things be according to God’s will. In your beloved name we pray. Amen.

A MOMENT TO BECOME LIKE CHILDREN

SERVICE OF GIVING

Call to Giving

Beside the lakeshore, long ago, Jesus called to his disciples: “Follow me, and I will make you fish for people!” Jesus calls to us today: “Follow me, and I will make you fish for people.” The ministry begun by the Sea of Galilee continues in our day when we proclaim the good news of God’s love. Let us give with joy as we follow Jesus.

As we pass the offering plate here in the sanctuary, we also pass a virtual offering plate to those worshiping with us on YouTube Live. We invite you to give by mailing your offering to the church or dropping it off at the church during the week, or by going to the Hagerstowncob website.

Offertory “Follow Me, I’ll Guide Thee Home” (Shea)

Doxology #119 “Praise God from whom”

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

O God, we have seen your glory, felt the touch of your love, and felt your presence with us. With joyful hearts, we offer you our gifts. Having heard your call, we offer you our lives and our service. Amen.

HYMN #357*“O Master, let me walk with thee”[Verse 1]O Master, let me walk with thee in lowly paths of service free. Tell me thy secret, help me bear the strain of toil, the fret of care.[Verse 2]Help me the slow of heart to move by some clear, winning word of love. Teach me the wayward feet to stay, and guide them in the homeward way.[Verse 3]Teach me thy patience, still with thee in closer, dearer company, in work that keeps faith sweet and strong, in trust that triumphs over wrong,[Verse 4]in hope that sends a shining ray far down the future’s broad’ning way, in peace that only thou canst give; with thee, O Master, let me live.PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE*SCRIPTURE READING

Matthew 4:12-23

NT 3

Now when Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. He left Nazareth and made his home in Capernaum by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali, so that what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled: “Land of Zebulun, land of Naphtali, on the road by the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the gentiles—the people who sat in darkness have seen a great light, and for those who sat in the region and shadow of death light has dawned.”

From that time Jesus began to proclaim, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near.”

As he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea—for they were fishers. And he said to them, “Follow me, and I will make you fishers of people.” Immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them. Immediately they left the boat and their father and followed him.

Jesus went throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness among the people.

HYMN #229“Lord, you have come to the lakeshore”[Verse 1]Lord, you have come to the lakeshore looking neither for wealthy nor wise ones. You only asked me to follow humbly.[Chorus]O Lord, with your eyes you have searched me, kindly smiling, have spoken my name. Now my boat’s left on the shoreline behind me; by your side I will seek other seas.[Verse 2]You know so well my possessions; my boat carries no gold and no weapons; but nets and fishes - my daily labor.[Chorus]O Lord, with your eyes you have searched me, kindly smiling, have spoken my name. Now my boat’s left on the shoreline behind me; by your side I will seek other seas.[Verse 3]You need my hands, full of caring, through my labors to give others rest, and constant love that keeps on loving.[Chorus]O Lord, with your eyes you have searched me, kindly smiling, have spoken my name. Now my boat’s left on the shoreline behind me; by your side I will seek other seas.[Verse 4]You, who have fished other oceans ever longed-for by souls who are waiting, my loving friend, as thus you call me.[Chorus]O Lord, with your eyes you have searched me, kindly smiling, have spoken my name. THE ANNOUNCER January 25, 2026

If you placed someone on the prayer list and they are now celebrating a recovery and would like their name taken off the list, please contact the church office.

If you or a loved one has surgery scheduled, is hospitalized, or would like a visit from the pastor, please notify the church.

"Take A Moment" Let the be our daily "Take a Moment" prayer for the week beginning on Sunday, January 25 - I woke up today, God, to a new day of joys and challenges. I look forward to the moments that I can see and feel your presence in my life. I anticipate that you will open my awareness to opportunities to answer your call to reach out to others. Sometimes, all that is needed is a kind word or a prayer. Help me to not take this lightly; but instead, see the power put forth through these efforts to extend healing and hope. Other times, more is required from me to answer your call. Admittedly, at some of those times, the call is a challenge for me to accept. I don't always feel I have the gifts required from me to do what you ask. And sometimes, I confess, I make other things or tasks a priority in my life because they are easier or more appealing to me. Send your Holy Spirit to move in me to trust your power to help me fulfill the tasks you ask of me. I want my life to glorify you and be a guide to help others to know you and all that you want to bring to their lives. This is my prayer, in Jesus' name. Amen.

Attendance. Please sign the attendance rosters found at the end of your pew, or possibly in the hymnal rack, and pass it down the row so everyone can sign.

Our thanks to Chris Stockslager for being our worship leader today and to the Temple Choir for our morning anthem.

Having your name and number on the outside of the envelope is a huge help to our offering counters. Thank you!
