The Pastor's Pen

"Do not worry about your life..." (Matthew 6:25)

These are words of encouragement from Jesus. It is only one line of a text found in Matthew 6:25-34 that discusses worry. Jesus tells us not to worry, and we receive it as encouragement...or maybe a suggestion. Yet read the words again, and you will hear that it is not offered as encouragement or a suggestion. The words, "Do not...", rather indicate a command.

In Philippians 4:6, Paul reiterates this command saying, "Be anxious for nothing." Interestingly, We are commanded to stop doing something we don't like doing in the first place; but how many of us respond to this command, myself included at times, saying, "that's easier said than done." Worry and anxiety rob us of sleep and healthy appetites. It redirects our positive attitudes towards negativity and mistrust; and often influences our productivity and our responsiveness in what we do and what we say.

There are a number of ways that we invite worry into our lives, maybe without even realizing it. Social media can be one thing that feeds our worry, and yet it is where many people turn for entertainment when they are bored or when they are seeking the latest information about something that concerns them. Where or to what do you turn to when your anxiety is high? In verse 33, following shortly after the command not to worry, we read that Jesus tells us where to turn when our anxiety gets out of control: "Seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well."

Author Chris Tiegreen wrote, "Consider what our worry says of our opinion of God. When we stress and strain over a situation, are we affirming God's providence and abundance? Are we embracing God's grace? No, our anxiety reveals our mistrust of God's sovereignty; it is an emotional slander of His character. We may justify our worry by observing all tragedies in the world around us, knowing that such may befall us as well. Yet God promises His sovereignty even over these, as well as His presence with us in the midst of them."

Worrying will not fix the things that cause our worry. If we instead take the energy that we put into worrying and use it for focusing and trusting God and for following His kingdom ways, things will get turned around. It begins with each and every Christian who surrenders their worry to God and places their trust in God's sovereignty. May we all stop putting our lives in the hands of our worry; and instead, put our lives in the hands of God. Amen.

Then Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. After fasting forty days and forty nights, he was hungry. The tempter came to him and said, "If you are the Son of God, tell these stones to become bread."

Jesus answered, "It is written: 'Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.'" - Matthew 4:1-4

The Puzzle Page for February 2026

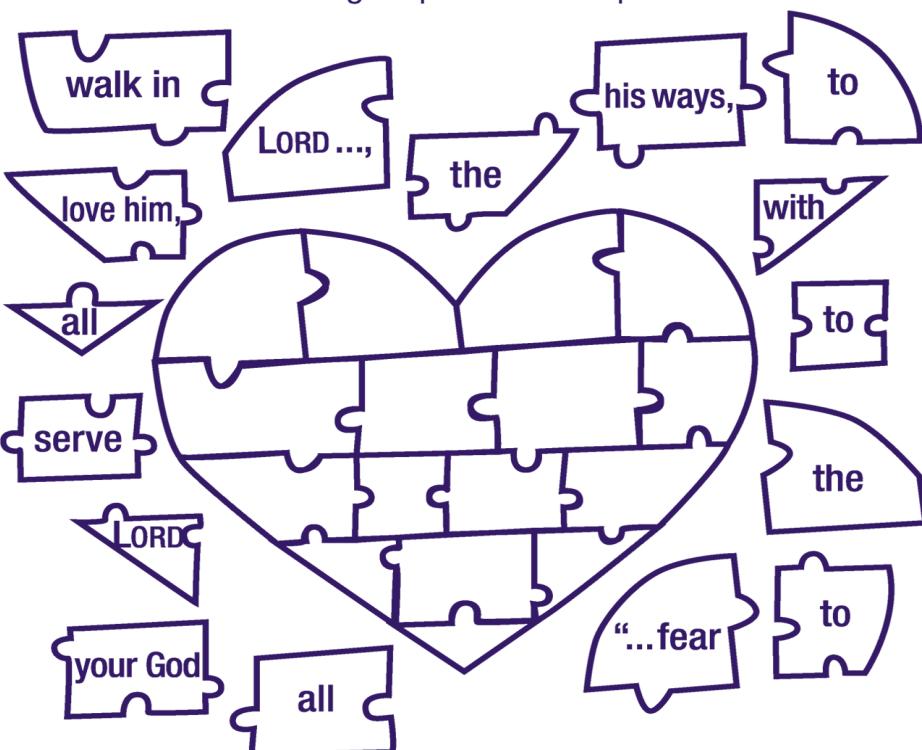

Just for

Our first love

In Deuteronomy 10:12 (NIV), Israel is asked a question that's also for us to answer: "What does the LORD your God ask of you?"

To find the answer, write the words from the puzzle pieces on the matching shapes in the completed heart.

... your heart and with all your soul ..."

Answer:
"... fear the LORD ...", to walk in all his ways, to love him, to serve the Lord your God with all ..."

 A JAR OF ***
Love and Appreciation

Sometimes we forget to show love and appreciation to people who are closest to us. Use this fun craft to let everyone in your family know how much you care.

What you need:

- Plastic jar with lid
- Heart-shaped foam pieces
- Heart-shaped stickers
- Glue
- Construction paper
- Scissors
- Pencil or crayons

What you do:

1. Decorate the jar and lid with heart-shaped foam pieces and stickers.
2. Cut out 2" or 3" heart shapes from the construction paper.
3. On each paper heart, write what you appreciate and love about your family and each member. Have all family members do this, too.
4. Place the heart messages inside the jar. Fold them in half, if necessary.
5. On each day in February, pull out one heart and read the message aloud to the family.
6. Notice the changes in your family when everyone feels loved and appreciated!
